

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

I confirm:

- 1 that except to the extent that I have already made disclosure to Teradata in writing: I do not hold any ownership or other financial interest in any privately-held business which is a competitor of any Teradata group company worldwide. To the best of my knowledge, I do not hold any ownership or other financial interest in any publicly-traded company which is a competitor of any Teradata group company worldwide where such interest is greater than 5% (five per cent) of its total equity.
- 2 that except to the extent that I have already made disclosure to Teradata in writing: to the best of my knowledge, I am not directly or indirectly related to, nor do I have any close friendship or romantic relationship with, any existing employee, contractor or worker of any Teradata group company worldwide.
- 3 that except to the extent that I have already made disclosure to Teradata in writing: to the best of my knowledge, I am not related to any person who is a government/public official/representative in the country in which I am employed/contracted by Teradata.
- 4 that if, during my employment/working relationship with Teradata, the position changes in relation to any of the matters above, I will immediately inform my Teradata manager and/or HR representative in writing.
- 5 that I understand, that in making a decision whether to offer me employment/other working contract, Teradata places great reliance on the matters addressed in this Disclosure Statement. Accordingly, if any confirmation I provide proves to be untrue or if I have not given full and open disclosure about these matters, I understand that I will be subject to disciplinary action.
